

PIONEERS WANTED

Intern Concept & Communication (m/f) | full time | 3-6 mths

At ... and dos Santos we create a better world for tomorrow. We are explorers in an ocean of endless possibility. With our work, we want to inspire society to be open to the vast opportunities in digital innovations, and to create extraordinary experiences for our clients and their customers.

The heart of ... and dos Santos is our international collective of high-profile thought leaders, experts and distinguished creatives. These include scientists, designers, software developers, directors as well as photographers, musicians, authors, fashion designers and more. Our model highlights the ways in which innovation and creativity are utilized today to deliver unique concepts, ideas and execution to our clients, e.g.: Accenture, Coca-Cola, Deutsche Bank, L'Oréal, Olympus, Red Bull, Vodafone and Walt Disney. To strengthen our team, we are looking for passionate and focused minds to navigate with us through new worlds with curiosity, paving the way for remarkable experiences and developments within our community.

As an Intern of Art & Communication, you will learn how to develop ideas and concepts for marketing strategies and communication. You will be involved in research activities and strategy development, as well as supporting the development of our corporate identity. You create presentations with attention to detail, and you share our passion for digital projects (AR, VR, AI, mobile, ...), new technologies (robotics, sensors, EEGs, ...) and innovative design.

RESPONSIBILITIES ...

- Develop ideas and concepts, including producing digital advertising and artistic material
- Support the creation of presentations, following directions from the creative manager
- Manage our website and social media accounts (creators and news updates, posting of innovative projects or art creation); responsible for preparing the content for our trend letter
- Collect and prepare content for presentations; finalizes the design
- Support the preparation of creative workshops, conferences and other project activities
- Help scout the market for new creators for our network
- Provide administrative support

ROLE REQUIREMENTS ...

- Studying communications, media, design, science humanities or other relevant subject
- Basic understanding of marketing communication, communication programs and campaigns
- Good overall advertising and business understanding
- Strong analytic and research skills, ability to plan and manage multiple priorities
- Basic strategic understanding of activating social platforms
- Fluent written and spoken English (German a plus)

PERSONAL QUALIFICATIONS ...

As our next Art & Communication Intern, you should have the ability to communicate effectively with senior creatives and clients. You therefore need to be self-driven, results-oriented with a positive outlook and a clear focus on high-quality output. You need to be reliable, tolerant and determined — an empathic communicator, able to see things from other points of view. You easily get along with others as a team player and are flexible and open minded towards new challenges. Most importantly, you should have a love for continually learning new things and improving your work. Let us know in your application which of our past projects inspires you most and why.

WHAT WE OFFER YOU ...

... and dos Santos offers you the chance to gain first-hand experience in the fields of digital transformation and disruptive technologies. You will manage exciting tasks, bringing to life your innovative ideas — from conception to implementation. You gain access to an exclusive environment of diverse experts, opinion leaders and distinguished, international clients. We have confidence in your abilities; we appreciate your experience and opinions, and give you the space needed to grow and develop. Become part of our team of inspiring and creative explorers.
